PLEASE NOTE: Parental involvement in the choir gives parents a sense of belonging and reinforces your child's experience in the choir. All families are expected to contribute to the good health of the choir by volunteering (one volunteer job per parent), and attending the annual parent meeting. Upon your child's acceptance to the program, you will be asked to indicate your preferences for volunteer activities, and these are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Please sign below to indicate that you are aware of this responsibility.

All classes take a certain amount of focus and attention. Some younger singers may not yet be fully ready to participate in the level appropriate for their age. Children are welcome to sit briefly and quietly with a parent in the younger levels until they are ready to participate again.
